CONFERENCE DESCRIPTION

Our 14th Annual Spring Conference on Pediatric Emergencies has been designed to provide physicians, nurse practitioners, physician assistants and nurses involved in pediatrics and emergency care practice with current, evidence-based information on various dilemmas involving pediatric emergency patients.

In addition to the didactic lectures, which will present current evidence-based diagnostic and management information, ample time is scheduled for participant feedback and interaction.

Content for this year's conference has been selected using extensive needs assessment data including past participant topic requests, clinical expert input, and Symposia Medicus' on-line needs assessment survey of healthcare professionals involved in pediatric emergencies.

An outstanding faculty has been selected based on their individual areas of expertise, their ability to communicate first-hand knowledge to others, and their commitment to address issues of current concern to attendees.

Morning sessions and one afternoon session leave ample time for relaxing, enjoying continued discussions with colleagues from the U.S. and abroad and for exploring this beautiful part of Costa Rica.

- Apply up-to-date clinical management techniques for metabolic emergencies in children;
- Improve your competency in visual diagnosis of common and life-threatening rashes in children;
- Manage the child with acute seizure.
