Since 1978

"Symposia Medicus does an excellent job of arranging conferences in exotic locations with well-informed speakers. I have always been impressed by the quality of their speakers. The half-day conferences are also a big plus! I love receiving my certificate on site."

-Benise L. Williams, MD

"I have attended several Symposia Medicus conferences over the years and have never been disappointed. The locations of the conferences are amazing and the schedule allows time to enjoy the surrounding areas. The content and speakers are always excellent."

-Cathie Gurgel, FNP

"Symposia Medicus remains the greatest resource for CME conferences in that the conferences are excellent, the staff is always so helpful, and the sites of the conferences are always great areas of fun and relaxation for my wife and family."

-C.H. Griffith, MD

CONFERENCE DESCRIPTION

Our 16th Annual Conference on Women's Health has been designed to provide physicians, nurse practitioners, physicians assistants and nurses with the most up-to-date and evidence-based clinical research on the Care of Women over 50. Emphasis will be placed on the practical application of content presented. In addition to didactic lectures and small group discussion sessions, ample time has been allotted for participant feedback and interaction.

The primary goal of this conference is to enhance knowledge of attendees; thereby improving clinical competence.

Topics in this year's conference have been selected based on extensive target audience needs assessment data, including past participant stated needs, clinical expert input, clinical guidelines, and the Symposia Medicus online needs assessment survey.

An outstanding faculty has been assembled for this conference. Presenters were selected based on their individual areas of expertise, their ability to communicate first-hand knowledge to others in a clear and concise manner, their commitment to address issues of current concern, and their willingness to interact with participants.

You are sure to enjoy your participation in this conference while sharing ideas and experiences with peers at the exciting Atlantis Resort in the Bahamas.

CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES

After participating in this conference, you should have an increased knowledge of, and be more competent to...

- Identify the updated guidelines in mammography screening
- Recognize the risks and benefits of hormone therapy and how they change with age and menopausal-related symptoms
- Provide appropriate cervical cancer screening information and prevention/treatment options for the older woman
- Treat and manage the older woman with type 1 or type 2 diabetes
